

Glen Cullis

Bio:

Spent many years as a self taught water colourist

1978 discovered photography, again self taught

A member of the RA Photo Club for 10 years winning many competitions

Turned professional in 1990 retired in 2003

During that time created a graphics art company selling photography and art to large software companies in the US, including Microsoft and several companies in California, Texas and Washington.

Glen Cullis

g-kcullis@sympatico.ca