

New Photo Shows in the Ottawa Area October 2010

Photo shows are thriving in the Ottawa area, to the point where there may be some interest in a regular summary of what's happening. Every month I will try to provide this to RA Photo Club members. For October, I have found 12 new listings, and that's in addition to over 30 Festival X exhibitions that continue into October, in almost every Gallery in town. I have not included the Festival X listings here because they are in a separate Festival X flyer and on their web site.

This list is just a start, and although it will never be complete or completely accurate, I will do my best to expand the sources. Anyone interested in adding, subtracting or commenting is welcome to do so. If you would like to ensure your upcoming show is included, please advise Bill Woodley at woodleycw@aol.com.
