HAVANA PHOTOGRAPHY WORKSHOP

Spend a week touring and photographing in beautiful and historic Havana Viejo on a workshop led by travel photographer and OPC member Chris Klus.

When: May 1-7, 2011

Cost: $1,800 (approximately)

Costs includes roundtrip airfare from Ottawa, airport transfers in Havana, hotel accommodation, breakfast, taxes and workshop fees.

Note: Price may vary somewhat (upwards or downwards) as we get closer to the departure date due to tour pricing. Meal costs are extra--budget about $250. There is a $25 USD departure tax.

Workshop: First day greet and meet, introductory talk on Havana and photo shooting tips by Chris. Each day a morning and late afternoon guided photo walk and evening review of participant's photos. One free day to explore Havana as you wish.

Minimum 6 and maximum 8 participants.

Participants need to bring a digital SLR and lenses, computer and photo processing software. Light tripod and flash may be useful. Participants are expected to be familiar with the use of their equipment.

For registration: email chris.klus@rogers.com or call (613) 837-3411 before February 15, 2011.
